Dear Dr. Riley

The last time we exchanged correspondence was on Friday, February 8.

I write to you today on behalf of the Executive Committee and membership of the StFX Association of University Teachers to request you to immediately call your negotiating team together to return to the bargaining table to meet with us to resolve the current impasse.

We both know the monetary and non-monetary issues which divide us could be addressed quickly at the table. In the best interests of our students and the reputation of the university, expedient action is required.

We await your positive response.

Sincerely,
