

Terms of Reference for the StFXAUT Book Prize Award

1. The StFXAUT Book Prize will be awarded to two undergraduate and/or B.Ed. students who are graduating each academic year.
2. The StFXAUT Book Prize will be awarded annually at Spring Convocation.
3. The StFXAUT Book Prize nomination form along with these Terms of Reference will be sent to the StFXAUT listserv by March 1st each calendar year with a response deadline of March 15th.
4. All AUT Members are eligible to nominate a student to be considered for the StFXAUT Book Prize Award.
5. Prior to being nominated, the student must be informed by the nominator.
6. A copy of the student's C.V. must accompany each StFXAUT Book Prize Award nomination form along with a letter (maximum one page) detailing the reasons for nominating the student for this Award.
7. Each Spring an ad hoc StFXAUT Book Prize Committee, consisting of a minimum of three StFXAUT Executive Committee Members and/or staff member, will be formed to review nomination forms.
8. After the March 15th submission deadline, the StFXAUT Book Prize Committee will meet to review the nomination forms. The Committee will present to the Executive their recommendations; the Awards will be confirmed when a motion to accept these recommendations is carried by the Executive. The names and student IDs will be then be submitted to the Convocation & Projects Officer in the Registrar's Office by April 1st.
9. The Award will be given to students demonstrating a strong commitment to social justice advocacy and community development on campus or in the community. Course-based campus or community activism/involvement is considered valuable, but nominees should also show commitment to and experience with serving campus and the broader community beyond course work.
10. The recipients will receive a book, selected by the StFXAUT Book Prize Committee, and a cheque for $200.
11. Students are eligible to receive the StFXAUT Book Prize Award once.
